LATONIA RESULTS FORMFUL

PUBLIC PICKS WINNERS OUT OF DIFFICULT CARD AT KENTUCKY TRACK.

Dorothy Dean Accounts for Allowance Race That Serves as Feature-Wilhite Wins Another Purse for W. G. Yanke.

Cincinnati, O., October 20.—In spite of the somewhat difficult and puzzling program offered at Latonia this afternoon, the volume of betting kept up larily well and the public did not fare badly, as favorites and second choices accounted for a majority of the purses. The outstanding feature, an allowance race at a mile and seventy yards, went to Dorothy Dean, one of J. W. Fuller's speedy mares, which scored over Rash, Star Actress and Cream. The last-named followed Star Actress closely for the first half, moved up in resolute fashion, assumed the lead in the stretch and withstood the challenge offered by Rash.

The talent started off badly when they centered their attention in the opener on Princess Callaway and Joe Deibold. The latter made a game bid for the purse, but failed by a short margin of beating Jimmie Gill. Princess Callaway never threatened seriously after becoming involved in a jam which occurred on the first turn.

Maiden fillies met in the second and Miss Fannie, from the J. B. Respess stable, just managed to outstay Water Witch. The latter was best, but suffered from interference. Bob Hensley was favored over Wilhite in the third, but when it came to the running the Yanke representative drew away from the Livingston starter with the utmost ease in the last furiong. Joe Walsh, a starter in the race, caused some excitement by fractious acting at the post and the unsenting of jockey Mott. He then sprinted riderless for a quarter at top speed and came to a stop of his own accord. He showed it ome speed during the early running of the race, but quit almost to a walk.

Considerable attention was given Hanworth, a recent English arrival, that was making his first start in the fifth race, but he showed to poor advantage and finished last. Booker Bill, which broke fast and enjoyed clear sailing for the entire trip, won handily over McAdoo, with Dortch, the favorite, third. The latter was caught in a jam at the start, which threw him back to last place and he lest considerable ground by being forced to go was the last of his mounts that will have the fivepound allowance.

Fred Auerbach, general manager of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association, departed tonight for Charleston to look after some preliminary details in connection with the opening there. He will return here about November 3. During his absence Frank J. Bruen and W. F. Schulte will look after stall applications and take entries to the stakes.
Quite a number of owners have already signified an intention of going to Charleston this winter and arrangements are under way for a special train to transfer the owners and their horses to the southern city shortly after the close of Latonia racing.

Arthur B. Hancock has recently added two choicely bred mares to his Ellersile Stud, in Fads and Fancies, brown mare, 10, by Yankee—Renown by St. Simon, and. Etelka, bay mare, 9, by Hamburg—Melba, by Mortemer. Fads and Fancies was purchased out of the recent sale by G. D. Wilson, acting for Mr. Hancock, while Etelka was bought privately from Mr. Wilson. Both mares will be sent to Celt, whose showing this year is most gratifying to Mr. Hancock. Out of thirteen starters, Celt, is represented by nine two-yearold winners, among them the stake winners, Coquette and Carbide.

ELWAH WINS STAKE AT LONG ODDS.

H. G. Bedwell's Mare Has a Bit of Racing Luck in Anne Arundel Selling Stakes at Laurel.

H. G. Bedwell's Mare Has a Bit of Racing Luck in Anne Arundel Selling Stakes at Laurel.

Baltimore, Md., October 20.—H. G. Bedwell's Elwah won the Anne Arundel Selling Stakes at Laurel Park this afternoon from probably the best field of selling platers that has started during the meeting. Her victory was a surprise and the race was crowded with incidents. To begin with, Elwah paid the big price of more than 50 to 1 in the mutuels. Behind her were the two strong choices, Amalfi and G. M. Miller. The start, which was one of Mars Cassidy's worst efforts, followed a three-furlong runaway by Executor, which threw his jockey at the post. After a delay of twelve minutes Cassidy sent the field off to a straggling getaway, with Uncle Mun standing and Tactics as good as left. Elwah was favored by the break and Anglegart look advatage of the by quickly rushing the factor of the self-like of the control o Mud Sill was bid up from $400 to $1,000 and sold to A. L. Aste, whose Goldy finished second.

New Orleans, La., October 20.—Members of the Business Men's Racing Association, which will con-duct a forty-days race meeting here, starting Janu-ary I, last night organized the Middle West Jockey Club, under the jurisdiction of which the races will be run, and to which jockeys, trainers and horsemen Club, under the jurisdiction of which the races will be rum, and to which jockeys, trainers and horsemen must pay licenses.

The New Louisiana Jockey Club agreed to allow the use of the Fair Grounds track for the first year's meeting free of charge, and agreed to bear part of the expense of putting the course in shape for the races. It was decided to hold a forty-days meeting, with six races each day, four of the purses to be $400 each and two purses $300 each. Stakes will be run once a week. The expenses of the association are figured at $2,500 per day.

Judge Joseph A. Murphy was elected managing director and presiding judge for five years, with authority to go to Latonia, Pimlico and other racing centers to induce horsemen to come here. A. B. Dade was appointed starter and Joseph McLennan racing secretary.

The association expects its capital stock of $100,000 to be fully paid up within four weeks, a total of $45,000 already being in hand. The admission fee will be $2 and individual betting will be allowed. The other officials aside from those mentioned above, will be local men.

TIMELY GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY.

Cincinnati, O., October 20.—Weights for the Fort Thomas Stakes, $2,000 added, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, will be announced on Thursday by Secretary E. W. Maginn. This event is to be the big feature race next Saturday afternoon at Latonia and its list of eligibles embraces a majority of the two-year-old cracks now racing in Kentucky, including Emerson Cochran, Ed Crump, Solly, Chalmers and Liberator. Great interest centers about the Fort Thomas Stakes, as it has in seasons past furnished a line on Derby timber for the following season. A race like this will doubtless draw an immense crowd to the Latonia track next Saturday. As a setting for the big event, Secretary Magina has arranged a great card of overnight events for that afternoon, three of the races being at a mile and over.

R. D. Williams has arrived at Latonia with a band of yearlings, which are to be sold here in the name of J. L. Holland at the yearlings sate next Monday and Tuesday. The yearlings williams brought here are all by the good race horse Hilarious and constitute the first of his get, the exception being one colt by Martinet. They are a lusty looking lot of youngsters. Manager Hachmeister is encouraging the holding of these yearling sales in the autumn at the Latonia track and will aid the breeders of Kentucky and elsewhere in making these offerings an annual feature in connection with the fall meetings at his course.

and elsewhere in making these offerings at administrature in connection with the fall meetings at this course.

Trainer W. Perkins has had bad luck with als string now quartered at Latonia. While several of his horses, including Luther, were in good form, during the racing at Louisville he had the misfortune to have three of his charges cut down in races, they being Talebearer, Flossic Crocket and Jeff Roberts. The latter's injury is so severe that he may not be able to race again this season, but Perkins hopes to get the other two to the nost before the meeting here ends. He expects to hot before the meeting here ends. He expects to hip to Juarez in Mexico, where he his decided to race a string the coming winter.

W. H. Frey brought two horses here to race, one being the good filly Zin Del, and the other the maiden two-year-old, Subject, which he bought in Maryland recently from William Garth. This youngster is a brown gelding that has raced twice. As yet Frey knows little about him, but he is a good doer and a two-year-old of fine disposition. He is by Migraine—Subjection, by Lenoxlove. He was bred by J. E. Madden and his dam has to ner credit two stake winners. This influenced Frey in purchasing him.

CONNAUGHT PARK TO FALL INTO LINE.

Ottawa, Ont., October 20.—The question of installing pari-mutuels at Connaught Park will be decided at a meeting of the new executive to be held this week. Manager Rohrback announced some time ago that the Connaught Park Club would banish the bookmakers as soon as the Dorval management decided to do so. Now Dorval has come out in favor of the mutuels and it is expected that a similar announcement will be forthcoming from the Connaught Park association this week.

It is understood that President Hal B. McGiverin intends to retire. He made a statement last week that he would be obliged to drop out, but is being urged to continue. It is understood that Ifon.
